

Introducing...

Brown Bag Bioneers

Fridays 12:00 – 1:00 pm
At the Interfaith Center

Corner of Grand &
South Illinois

This eight-week series features video keynote presentations from recent Bioneers* Conferences, followed by discussion.

Brown Bag Bioneers kicks off August 22nd with award-winning author and inventor Amory Lovins, whose presentation is titled “Winning the Oil Endgame: Mobilizing Business and Design Innovation for Profitable Energy Security.”

Light refreshment including organic, fair-trade coffee will be provided. The organizers will strive for this to be a ZERO-WASTE event, and to that end request participants avoid foam packaging.

Brown Bag Bioneers is co-sponsored by the Southern Illinois Center for a Sustainable Future and UCM/Gaia House at the Interfaith Center. Learn more at www.sicsf.org

Upcoming Brown Bag Bioneers presentations include:

- Aug. 29 – Jay Harman “Designing the Next Golden Age: A Progress Report”
- Sept. 5 – LaDonna Redmond “The Color of Sustainability”
- Sept. 12 – Sofia Quintero “Women Telling Our Stories and Promoting Justice”
- Sept. 19 – Michael Pollan “Beyond the Bar Code: The Local Food Revolution”
- Sept. 26 – Tzaporah Berman “Corporate Campaigns and the New Environmentalism: Places, People, and the Fate of Our Last Great Forests”
- Oct. 3 – Majora Carter “Green the Ghetto”
- Oct. 10 – Andy Lipkis “Restoring Los Angeles: Healing the Nature of Our Cities”

Each video presentation is approximately ½ hour long; these titles and many more are available through SICSF’s resource library.

Bioneers are Biological Pioneers, a worldwide community of people who are ushering in more equitable and sustainable ways of organizing human activity on the planet’ studying natural systems to learn how to restore our environment and humanity. Learn more at www.bioneers.org